Language

Languages: German, English

Helpful phrases

- Hello / Good day – Hallo / Guten tag
- Thank you – Dankeschön
- Excuse me – Entschuldigen Sie
- Cheers! – Prost!
- Bye - Tschüss

Money matters

Currency: Euro (1 EUR ~ 1.10 USD ~ 1.50 SGD)

Credit cards (Visa and MasterCard) are accepted in most stores and restaurants. Always choose to pay in EUR (the local currency) when prompted by the payment terminal.

Carry a bit of cash for smaller stores and markets. If you have a Transferwise Borderless Card, you can withdraw with minimal conversion fees and minimal ATM fees from Austria's major banks (ex. Bank Austria / Unicredit, Sparkasse, and Volksbank).

When to go

You can go on this road trip year-round, but the weather is excellent for exploring Austria from May to September, with average temperatures of 20°C.

Peak months are from July to August, so avoid these months if you don't like crowds.

September and October are great for mild, fall weather, fewer crowds, and better prices.

Winter is also a great time to visit Austria, especially if you plan to visit the alps or love Christmas markets and magical European winters.

From 1 November to 15 April, you'll need to have winter tires. This should be included in your rental car – but verify with the rental car company.

Events and activities

Here are year-round events in Vienna and Salzburg.

|                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                |

Sample itineraries

▶ 5 days

Day 1: Start the day early in Vienna, Austria's beautiful capital. Spend the morning at the Schönbrunn Palace, have lunch at the Naschmarkt, then spend the rest of the day walking around the Old Town. If you love art, take some time to visit the Albertina or the Belvedere.

Day 2: Get your rental car and begin your drive to the Salzkammergut region. Stop by the Burg Liechtenstein, a medieval castle at the edge of the Vienna Woods. Continue to the Melk Abbey, a Benedictine abbey complex perched on a hill above the Danube. Then walk around Steyr's beautiful medieval town square, before continuing to Hallstatt, where you'll stay for the night.

Explore Vienna, Austria's breathtaking capital

Day 3: Explore the storybook towns of Hallstatt and Dachstein. Start early to avoid the day trip crowds and take your Hallstatt photos in the early morning light. Visit the salt mine and the Sky Walk, then relax in Dachstein or Obertraun.

Day 4: Drive from Hallstatt to Salzburg with several spots along the Lake District. St. Wolfgang, St. Gilgen, and Mondsee are all historic towns with gorgeous lake views.

Day 5: Explore Salzburg's historical center. Start at the Mirabell Palace and Gardens, go up the Kapuzinerberg, follow the Mozart trail, then end the day in Mönchsberg.

The drive through Salzkammergut will bring you to absolutely amazing towns like Hallstatt.

► More days

Spend more days in Vienna and Salzburg to fully explore the two amazing cities. Here are 3-day itineraries for Vienna and Salzburg.

Spend more days in Hallstatt if you love nature and the outdoors. While Hallstatt itself can be explored in a day, it's an excellent base for hiking and biking trips around the Salzkammergut region.

Consider staying in less touristy towns in the Lake District. Obertraun, St. Gilgen, and Mondsee are quieter towns to stay in if you want to avoid Hallstatt's tourist crowds.

Take side trips to the Czech Republic and to Germany. From Vienna, you can drive to South Moravia, the Czech Republic's lush and scenic wine region. Spend a day or two in Mikulov and Lednice, or stay for longer and explore the region's many biking trails.

From Salzburg, drive to the Eagle's Nest and the Berchtesgaden in Germany. You can also drive on to Cesky Krumlov, a beautiful fairytale town in the Czech Republic.

Getting there

By plane

Vienna and Salzburg both have international airports, which serve flights to and from Schengen and international cities.

Check flights to Vienna

Check flights to Salzburg

By train or bus

If you're coming from nearby cities and countries, you can reach Vienna or Salzburg by train or bus. If you're on a multi-country trip, getting a Eurail Global Pass may turn out to be more convenient and economical for you. Otherwise, you can check OBB for train connections and Flixbus or RegioJet for bus travel.

From Vienna airport to the city

By train – You can catch a train from Vienna using the City Airport Train or the ÖBB Trains. You can buy tickets online or at the airport. You'll pay less with a Vienna City Card, which gives you free public transportation within Vienna city limits.

By bus – You can catch a bus from the airport to various points in the city. VAL 1 goes from the airport to the main train station (Hauptbahnhof/HBF) and the Westbahnhof station. VAL 2 goes to Morzinplatz/Schwedenplatz. VAL 3 goes to Donauzentrum. You can buy tickets online, directly from the bus driver (cash payment), or from ticket machines at the airport. You get discounts with the Vienna City Card.

By taxi – You can book a taxi using the Free Now app or Uber.

By private transfer – The private transfer service can accommodate groups of up to 4 (car) and 7 (minibus).

Book a transfer from the
airport to your hotel

From Salzburg airport to the city

By bus – You can catch a bus from Salzburg airport to various points in the city. Bus No. 2 runs daily between the airport and the Salzburg main station (Hauptbahnhof/HBF), while Bus No. 10 runs from the airport to the city center. You can get tickets at the airport terminal, at the bus stop, or from the Salzburg Verkehr app. You can ride all forms of public transportation for free with the Salzburg Card.

By taxi – You can book a taxi using the Free Now app.

By private transfer – The private transfer service can accommodate groups of up to 3 (sedan), 6 (minivan), and 8 (minibus).

Book a transfer from the
airport to your hotel

Where to stay

Spend a couple of nights each in Vienna, Salzburg, and Hallstatt. The hotels I list here all have parking spaces and are perfect for exploring the main sights on foot or by public transportation.

I also list hotels in Steyr, Obertraun, and Mondsee. These are more relaxed and less-touristy cities that are worth staying for a night or two if you have extra days to spare.

Vienna

If you love art, architecture, and history, spend at least 2-3 days in Vienna. Stay near the historic center and use public transportation when going around the city center.

- Hotel Am Parkring
- Hotel Sans Souci

Hallstatt

Spend a couple of nights in the Salzkammergut region. Hallstatt is one of the most beautiful towns in the area, but it can be extremely touristy. If you prefer a more relaxed stay, stay at the neighboring town of Obertraun instead.

- Seehotel Grüner Baum
- Heritage Hotel

Salzburg

If you love Mozart, the "Sound of Music," and beautiful baroque architecture, stay in Salzburg for 2-3 days. Stay either in the old town or the new town to easily explore the compact and walkable historic center.

- Hotel Am Dom
- Hotel am Mirabellplatz

Steyr

If you have extra days to do this road trip, spend a night in Steyr. It's a lovely, relaxing city with almost no crowds, a well-preserved medieval old town, and a beautiful river.

- Landhotel Mader
- Stadthotel Styria

Obertraun

Obertraun is a 10-minute drive from Hallstatt and a great place to stay if you want to experience Hallstatt's beauty without the overwhelming crowds and tourism.

- Haus Salzkammergut
- Dormio Resort Obertraun

Mondsee

Mondsee is an excellent place for a holiday in the summer. You can do water sports and go hiking and biking.

- Hotel Krone
- Schlosshotel Mondsee

Renting a car

Requirements

- Age – To rent a car, you must be at least 18 years old. If you're under 25, rental car companies may add a young driver surcharge, and you may not be able to rent certain car models.
- License – If you plan to drive in Austria for a short time as a tourist, it is recommended to get a valid International Driving Permit (IDP) from your country's automobile association. Note that the IDP is only valid when accompanied by a valid local license, so make sure to bring both. Driving licenses issued within the European Union are valid in Austria.
- Other documents – Have your passport and a credit card under your name when picking up the rental car. The rental car company might authorize a deposit on your credit card to cover for any damages.

Renting a car

- Reserve online - Make sure to reserve your car online in advance.

Rental cars in Vienna

Rental cars in Salzburg

Other car hire locations in Austria

- Get a comprehensive car hire insurance – For total peace of mind, get a comprehensive personal car hire insurance that will cover for damages and theft.

Get a rental car insurance

- Add-ons – A GPS unit and child seats can be added to your reservation if needed.
- One-way rentals – Many rental car companies in Austria allow domestic one-way rentals for an extra free. This means you can pick up your car from one city and drop it off in another.

Costs – 3-day road trip (2019 prices and estimates)

- Rental car – A 5-seat sedan ranges from EUR 130-180 for 3 days.

- Gas – Estimating 600 kilometers over 3 days, gasoline could cost you up to EUR 60.
- Tolls – You'll need a highway toll sticker or vignette to use the motorways. Most rental car companies will include this with the car, but if not, it costs EUR 9 for a vignette with 10-day validity.
- Parking – Within cities, you can look for blue zones where parking is free for a certain period (indicated as the number of minutes on a sign within the vicinity) or paid parking spaces. "Park and Ride" garages are cheap options when spending a day in the city – you can park here for the whole day for EUR 4-5.

Road rules and safety

Emergency numbers

- 112 – General emergency number
- 133 – Police
- 144 – Ambulance

Austria drives on the right side of the road.

Usual speed limits

- Highways – 130 km/hr (80 miles/hr)
- Country roads – 100 km/hr (62 miles/hr)
- Towns and cities, urban areas – 50 km/hr (30 miles/hr)

Follow posted speed limit signs in motorways and villages.

Things to watch out for

- Don't drink and/or use mobile devices while driving.
- Always wear a seatbelt.
- Don't drive during winter without snow chains.
- Don't park on a white line at a bus stop and in front of yellow/red lines or within 3 meters of a fire hydrant.
- Don't turn right on red.

Navigating

Transportation options

Local transportation

You can get around Vienna, Salzburg, and nearby destinations using trains, buses, and trams. I highly recommend getting the city cards for Vienna and Salzburg, which lets you ride all forms of public transportation for free and gives you free admissions and discounts to most of the museums and sights in this itinerary.

For train travel, you can check routes and buy tickets online using the OBB app. For buses and trams within the city, you can find routes and buy tickets (if you don't have the city cards) using the Wiener Linien website or app and the Salzburg Verkehr app.

You can book a taxi using the Free Now app.

Tours and activities

Vienna

Schönbrunn Palace and Gardens

One of Vienna's highlights is the UNESCO-listed Schönbrunn Palace. It's the best place to get to know Austria's history and traditions, as well as see how the Habsburg family lived.

Concert in Kursalon

Listen to Mozart and Strauss's best works performed by world-class artists in one of the world's most renowned concert halls.

Hallstatt

Salt Mine Tour

Hallstatt is home to the world's first salt mine, which played an essential role in the wealth of the town and surrounding cities. The salt mine tour is a fun way to learn more about salt's historical significance and other pre-historic discoveries.

Salzburg

Concert at Mirabell Palace

This is one of the most famous chamber music concerts in the world. Spend an evening enjoying Mozart's most beautiful works being performed by national and international soloists and ensembles.

Sound of Music Tour

Experience the world of "The Sound of Music" and visit set locations and beautiful places in and around Salzburg.

Wi-Fi and SIM cards

Wi-Fi device

Map

Use this Google Map to get around and plan your trip.

I also added Waze driving directions to all the stops in this road trip itinerary. You'll find them in the next section (Where to go). Simply click on the links to navigate to each location. You should have the Waze app and an internet connection.

Where to go

KM 0 – Vienna

If it's your first time visiting Austria, spend at least 2-3 days in Vienna.

Visit the Schönbrunn Palace and Gardens, walk around Ringstrasse, and visit the many art museums (Kunsthistorisches, Albertina, and Belvedere are the most notable ones). If you love the outdoors, hike around the Vienna woods or venture to Döbling. Here's a detailed 3-day itinerary.

TOP TIP: It's best to go around the city center using public transportation, as parking spaces are limited. Get a Vienna Pass to get discounts to museums and attractions, as well as unlimited rides on the hop-on-hop-off bus.

Note: Click these links to navigate there using the Waze app. You'll need to have the app on your phone and an internet connection. If your car has a valid Austrian toll vignette, add "Vignette AT" to your Toll and HOV Passes (Settings – Navigation) to get the best routes.

Vienna HBF

Let's begin this road trip right with a visit to Vienna, one of Austria's most majestic cities.

[\[P\] Burg Liechtenstein](#)

[\[P\] Melk Abbey](#)

KM 29 – Burg Liechtenstein

Burg Liechtenstein is a 12th-century stone castle standing on the southern edge of the Vienna Woods. It's one of Europe's rare Romanesque secular buildings still existing.

You can take a tour of the castle and get a nice of the surrounding countryside.

KM 107 – Melk Abbey

Melk Abbey is an 11th-century Benedictine abbey perched on a rocky outcrop above the Danube. It's one of the biggest European Baroque complexes and a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Take some time to explore the abbey's extensive museum and gardens and walk around the city of Melk.

KM 191 – Steyr

Steyr is the perfect place to stop for an early dinner and a short stroll along the banks of the city's two rivers.

If you have an extra day, Steyr is a great place to stop for the night as you drive from Vienna to the Salzkammergut region. You can spend a day exploring the medieval town square, the 15th-century Bummerlhaus (considered one of the most excellent examples of Gothic architecture in Central Europe), and the Sternhaus. You can also spend some time at the Castle Schloss Lamberg, a Baroque castle with art exhibitions and a park.

[\[P\] Near Steyr historical center](#)

[\[P\] Schloss Lamberg](#)

A drive from Vienna to Salzburg won't be complete without a stop at the beautiful postcard-perfect Hallstatt! Stay here for a couple of days and soak up the gorgeous landscape.

KM 318 – Hallstatt

Plan to spend a couple of days in Hallstatt. While the city itself is compact and can be explored in a day, there's much to see and do in the area, especially for nature-lovers.

Walk along the lake from the north viewpoint to the south viewpoint, with stops at the cemetery and the market square along the way.

From the south viewpoint, make your way to the funicular and ride up to the salt mine (get tickets in advance here). Plan to spend around 3 hours exploring the salt mine and the Sky Walk.

Drive to Obertraun for a quiet afternoon by the lake or to Dachstein for amazing views from the Five Fingers platform. Stop by Gasthaus Koppenrast for lunch or dinner.

Here's a complete travel guide to Hallstatt.

KM 355 – St. Wolfgang

Walk around the city's streets past the colorful wooden houses and make your way to the 14th-century church filled with precious artworks. There's also a market square that especially comes alive during the Christmas season.

If the weather is beautiful and you have more time, you can go up the mountain on board the Schafbergbahn.

KM 372 – St. Gilgen

Across Lake Wolfgangsee from St. Wolfgang is St. Gilgen, another beautiful lakeside town.

It's a beautiful place to stop for lunch, go for a swim during warm months, or shop and stroll along the lake. You can also hike up the Zwölferhorn or go by cable car.

KM 387 – Mondsee

This one is particularly famous and part of tours that visit the set locations of “The Sound of Music,” so if you’re planning to join a tour once in Salzburg, you can skip this on your drive.

If you love watersports, though, consider staying for a day or two in Mondsee. You can go sailing, kitesurfing, and swimming here during the summer months, as well as hiking and biking around the area.

Last stop but not the least in this road trip itinerary: Salzburg. Home of Mozart, the setting of the "Sound of Music," and a city which owes its beauty to salt.

KM 416 – Salzburg

Finally, we reach Salzburg, a beautiful baroque city near the border with Germany.

Spend 2-3 days in Salzburg – walk around the old town, hike up the viewpoints around the city, learn about Mozart's life and art, and go on a "Sound of Music" tour. Save an afternoon to watch the sunset from the Hohensalzburg fort and an evening to enjoy Mozart's compositions at the Mirabell Palace. Take time to appreciate the city's baroque architecture, the scenic Alpine surroundings, and its beautiful gardens and churches.

From Salzburg, you can continue your road trip to Germany or to the Czech Republic.

Here's a detailed 3-day itinerary plus a PDF guide to help you plan your trip to Salzburg.

TOP TIP: Get a Salzburg Card! You'll get access to most of the museums and sights in this itinerary.

What to eat and where

Vienna and Salzburg have exciting multicultural dining scenes, but make sure to try out the local cuisine as well. Schnitzel, of course, is a must, as well as hearty platters of meat and sausage best enjoyed with beer. Also, venture into the cafés and konditorei, and into the heurigers.

In Salzkammergut, make sure to eat freshly-caught fish by the lake. If you happen to stumble upon what looks like a small, family-run restaurant-inn, you'll probably have one of the best meals of your trip there!

Where to go next

Add these fantastic Central European destinations to your Austrian road trip.

TOP TIP: you can find rental car companies here which would allow you to pick up your car in one country and drop it off in another (example: pick it up in Prague, drop it off in Vienna). Tick the “drop car off at a different location” and enter your trip details.

Driving from Prague to Vienna

If you have a couple of weeks to explore Central Europe, start in Prague and explore the Czech Republic’s gorgeous castle towns and countryside before heading to Austria. Here’s a handy PDF guide for that amazing road trip.

5 days in the Czech Republic

If you’re visiting the Czech Republic for the first-time, here’s how to see the best destinations in the country. It, of course, starts in the beautiful city of Prague, with side trips to lesser-known but equally amazing gems.

South Moravia, Czech Republic

If you’re looking to relax in the countryside for a couple of days, venture to South Moravia, the Czech Republic’s wine region. Just an hour’s drive north of Vienna, this is where you can hike and bike through miles of forests and vineyards and enjoy food and wine in small castle towns and village pubs.

Budapest, Hungary

If you're looking for more exciting city scenes and adventures, though, Budapest should be your next destination. From magnificent architecture, quirky ruin bars, and breathtaking night scenes, there's a lot to discover in this vibrant city.

You'll never run out of beautiful cities and destinations to explore in Central Europe. Here's Budapest, the perfect destination if you're looking for exciting city scenes and adventures.
